

I attempted to attach the full transcript but received a message for just the first of about 6 sections that there was too much data. My filing contains summaries of actual testimony with references to where this sworn testimony is located in the transcript. Is there an alternative method to attaching the transcript? Thank you, Deborah Carney, attorney for CARE